

Dreaming

Think of a dream you have had that you remember well...

What happened in it?

Was it scary or did it make you feel happy?

Write all about it in the bubble below and draw any pictures that you want to go with it.

A large, empty thought bubble shape composed of several overlapping circles. It is connected to the child's head by a series of three smaller circles, forming a path for the thought bubble to lead to the writing area.