

An alien encounter

- Imagine a strange alien has come from space to visit you. They have never been to earth before and don't know what anything is.
- What three things might you want to show or do with them?
- You might want to cook them your favourite meal, show them what a television is, or play with your toys. Write and draw below to show what things you would want to do.

